

Welcome to the IIT Roorkee campus!

We are delighted to welcome you to our lovely green campus.

Kindly find the following information required upon your arrival.

Note: You are allowed to enter the campus only after fulfilling the conditions listed in MOHFW (and you have to follow safety guidelines issued by Govt. of India throughout your travel).

Where to Report

Once you arrive at the IIT Roorkee campus please report at the main entrance SQCC gate no.1 (near the bus stand) of the institute from where you have to report to the Dean of student welfare office / International Relations office where you will be allotted your Hostel/Apartment. Please contact the International Relations office regarding your date and timing of arrival beforehand so that your accommodation shall be allotted before your arrival.

How to reach IIT Roorkee

The closest airport is Dehradun approx. (70 km), but it has very limited flights. Landing at New Delhi Indira Gandhi International (IGI) Airport could be a more viable option. The distance from New Delhi airport to IIT Roorkee is about approx. 200 km which can be covered in the following modes. In any case of travel by road or train, AVOID agents.

Taxi (Delhi to Roorkee)

You can hire an "Ola cab" outstation from your mobile app. It will cost approx. INR 5000 for a compact sedan or mini. You need to pay the taxes and tolls apart from what the app shows.

A taxi can be arranged from Roorkee to pick you up from the airport if you book in advance (at least a day before your arrival). The cost would be approx. INR 4000. In such a case you can contact any one of the following travel agents:

Bus (Delhi to Roorkee)

There are air-conditioned buses from IGI Airport to the Inter-State Bus Terminal (ISBT) at Kashmiri Gate (a location in New Delhi). If you are exiting from Terminal 3, you can find these shuttles at the extreme of your left. If you are exiting Terminal 2, you must walk to your right to find the bus terminal. The ticket costs approx. INR 700, which can be bought on the bus. These buses stop at the periphery of the ISBT Kashmiri Gate. At the ISBT Kashmiri Gate AVOID any agent or getting into any private bus. The government-run buses start from the inner part of the terminal. Proceed towards Uttarakhand or UP Transport bays and catch a Volvo bus leaving for Dehradun/Haridwar/Rishikesh. The ticket costs approx. INR 850. These buses will drop you at the Roorkee bus station.

At the Roorkee, catch an e-Rickshaw (a battery-operated cart) to enter the campus of IIT Roorkee. It should cost around INR 100. Please refer to "Where to report" i.e., IITR, for the destination.

Train

From the IGI airport, you can catch the airport metro to reach the New Delhi Railway station. Trains between Delhi and Roorkee require advance bookings, such as Janshatabdi and Vande Bharat, etc., In case of any trouble in the railway station, please talk to the “Station Master”.

Metro Train

From IGI Terminal 3 to Kashmiri gate, cost approx. Rs 100.
